

Association
Européenne des
Conservatoires

ACCESS TO CULTURE

A fundamental right of all citizens

ASSOCIATION EUROPEENNE DES CONSERVATOIRES WHO WE ARE

The Association Européenne des Conservatoires, Académies de Musique et Musikhochschulen (AEC) is a European cultural and educational network with over 280 member institutions for professional music training in 57 countries that works for the advancement of European Higher Music Education and, more generally, of music, the arts and culture in contemporary society and for future generations. It does this through providing support, information and expert advice to the specialist institutions offering Higher Music Education, through engaging in advocacy and partnership-building at European and international levels and through measures to raise understanding and enhance standards of Higher Music Education across the European Higher Education Area and beyond. AEC organizes regular meetings for conservatoire teaching and management staff, and is involved in various projects. In 2011-2014, AEC coordinates the ERASMUS Network for Music Polifonia to study issues such as artistic research in music, assessment and standards in conservatoires, mobility and recognition, educating for entrepreneurship, and quality assurance. For more information, visit the AEC website at www.aec-music.eu.