

Conseil Européen des Associations de Traducteurs Littéraires
(AISBL) European Council of Literary Translators' Associations

CEATL EUROPEAN COUNCIL OF LITERARY TRANSLATORS4 ASSOCIATION WHO WE ARE

CEATL is an international non-profit association (AISBL) under Belgian law, officially created in 1993 as a platform where literary translators' associations from different European countries could exchange views and information, and join forces to improve status and working conditions of literary translators. Set up by 10 founder members, CEATL now has 34 member associations from 28 countries across Europe, representing some 10,000 individual authors.

CEATL has two sets of aims, one internal and one external. On the internal front we gather information on the situation of literary translation and translators in the member countries and share experiences and examples of best practice. On the external front we defend the legal, social and economic interests of literary translators in a European context, which includes EU lobbying and reacting publicly to trends or events impacting on our profession and on the quality of literary translation. We help individual member associations to strengthen the position of literary translators in their countries.

For more information, visit the CEATL website at www.ceatl.eu