

ICORN (International Cities of Refuge Network) WHO WE ARE

ICORN (International Cities of Refuge Network) is an independent, international membership organization dedicated to freedom of expression. The members are cities, municipalities, regions and other relevant bodies around the world. Each city offers shelter to a persecuted writer for up to two years. ICORN receives applications from persecuted and silenced writers around the world. The ICORN Administration Centre is located in Stavanger, Norway. Its primary tasks are to establish connections between the writers and the cities of refuge, and to recruit and assist the member cities. So far (2012) 40 cities have joined ICORN.

For more information see www.icorn.org