

LANetwork - LATIN AMERICAN NET ON ART FOR SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION REPRESENTATIVE TO THE ACCESS TO CULTURE PLATFORM

Patricia Kistenmacher

Since 2009-Member of Crear Vale la Pena Advisory Board. International Representative of the Latin American Net Art for Social Transformation. Since 2010, represents the LA Net at the International Coalition on Art, Rights and Justice (ICARJ).

Since 2009 -Independent Professional. Design, implementation, facilitation and evaluation of working sessions (<http://www.patriciakistenmacher.com>). Certified LEGO® Serious Play® Methodolgoy designer and facilitator.

Since 2009 - Stone-Soup Consulting Community Member (www.stone-soup.net)

1997- 2009 - F. AVINA Argentina. (www.avina.net). In 2003 started accompanying the 24 art organizations that founded the Latin American Net on Art for Social Transformation. Responsible for the AVINA internal follow-up of the Net Action Plans

2005 -2009 and 2007 – 2009 - In charge of identifying social leadership in Argentina and in the city and Province of Buenos Aires as of 2005. Budget Administrator for the AVINA Buenos Aires investments made on two fields (Equity of Opportunities – arts, sports, fair trade, education, urban development - and Conservation and Management of Natural Resources – urban basins, coastal areas, climate change).

Responsible for the AVINA Argentina start-up, in Buenos Aires.