

EUROPEAN ACADEMY OF YUSTE FOUNDATION REPRESENTATIVE TO THE ACCESS TO CULTURE PLATFORM

The Foundation counts with a Delegation in Brussels represented by Miguel Ángel Martín Ramos in charge of developing European projects and of European and international institutional relations. At the Foundation, he is in charge of the issues related with social affairs for the European Academy of Yuste Foundation, and responsible for the follow up at EU level of cultural, education, youth, equal opportunities and social policies for the foundation in Brussels since 2000, and working in close collaboration with the Regional Government of Extremadura and its office in Brussels in this topics. He is in charge of coordinating and managing for the Foundation the organisation at the European level of many exhibitions, concerts, seminars, forums, congresses, debates, publications...etc. He is also responsible for international relations with European Institutions in order to follow the policies related with the topics mentioned above, and the development of projects and reports of European dimension. Since 2006 he is member of the Administration Board of the International Jean Monnet Association. Since 2009 he chairs the Working Group on Language Diversity and Social Inclusion at the European Platform of the Civil Society to Promote Multilingualism. He also represents the European Academy of Yuste Foundation at the European Foundation Centre, the European Disability Forum, The European Policy Centre, the European Group on Active Citizenship, the United Nation Alliance of Civilizations initiative, the Coalition of the European Year on Active Ageing and Solidarity between Generations 2012, and at the European Platform of the Civil Society to promote Access to Culture, where he is Spokesperson since July 2011.

Miguel Ángel Martín Ramos, is graduated in business administration, marketing and international relations. He is manager advisor in European, cultural and social affairs for the European Academy of Yuste Foundation, and responsible for cultural, education, youth, equal opportunities and social policies in the Office of Extremadura in Brussels since 2000. He has coordinated and directed for the Foundation the organisation at the European level of many exhibitions, concerts, seminars, forums, congresses, debates, publications...etc. He is also responsible for international relations and the relations between these institutions and the European Institutions, the development of projects and reports of European dimension, and coordinator of the Advisor Committee of the European Academy of Yuste. He has published some articles on European Union Policies, attended and participated as speakers in many seminars, workshops, meetings and debates, and given and presented several working papers and communications.

Since 2006 is also member of the Administration Board of the International Jean Monnet Association. Since 2009 he chairs the Working Group on Language Diversity and Social Inclusion at the European Platform of the Civil Society to Promote Multilingualism. He also represents the European Academy of Yuste Foundation at the European Foundation Centre, the European Disability Forum, The European Policy Centre, the European Group on Active Citizenship, the United Nation Alliance of Civilizations initiative, the Coalition of the European Year on Active Ageing and Solidarity between Generations 2012, and at the European Platform of the Civil Society to promote Access to Culture, where he is Spokesperson since July 2011.

He speaks fluent Spanish (mother tongue), French, and English, and has a good knowledge of Portuguese.